

Pillar	Most think	I think life	Life is an ingredient to the world that could have been left out	Life arises and develops through evolution knowledge	Knowledge is sought and proven	Knowledge arises and develops through evolution Calculate	Calculations are abstract, static and dead symbol patterns	Life and knowledge are becoming more and more virtual coincidence	Coincidence is an event without a cause	Coincidence is the overlapping of mutually independent and mutually invisible variants of the one world