

1. We will see all who are no more.
2. We will all be resurrected.
 - 2.1. At the end of all time and outside of space and time, the end point is perfect knowledge.
 - 2.2. Perfect knowledge is indistinguishable from resurrection.
3. Perfect knowledge is outside of space and time.
 - 3.1. Presence, chance, will and consciousness are within space and time.
 - 3.2. Perfect knowledge only knows about the present, coincidence, will and consciousness when it lives, loves and suffers, dies and rises with us and how we are conceived and born.
4. Knowledge and life are becoming more and more virtual.
5. Knowledge arises and develops through evolution.
6. Life arises and develops through evolution.
7. Before all time and outside of space and time, the beginning point is omnipotent.
 - 7.1. The starting point is the starting point of everything that is.
 - 7.2. The starting point is the starting point of all superimposed worlds that are visible to one another and invisible to one another.
8. There are no events without a cause.
 - 8.1. The future is indistinguishable from the superimposition of possibilities.
 - 8.2. Presence, chance, will and consciousness are indistinguishable from the decoupling of overlapping possibilities.
 - 8.3. The past is indistinguishable from realized events and events that can be remembered from the present.
9. In form, all is form of the same form, and in substance, all substance is of the same substance.
 - 9.1. Form and substance are mutually dependent and make everything possible.
10. I exist.
 - 10.1. I can interact with others.
 - 10.2. Others can interact with me.
 - 10.3. We can interact with the world.
 - 10.4. Everything is of the same form and substance.